

News and notes

By Matt Nilsson

| April 26, 2022

Dear members: We debut a new column (p. 28) in this issue of CSA News magazine called “Membership: What’s Your Story?” The column invites Society members to talk about their personal experiences with the Societies. Every member has a story. What’s yours? We’d love to hear from you. Email Send Message.

New Corporate Member

We welcome the following new Corporate Member as of 8 Mar. 2022: Centro Agrotecnologico Experimental, S.L., Cartagena Spain, Platinum Level

ASA, CSSA, and SSSA Corporate Membership is an effective component in your company’s outreach to agronomic, crop, soil, and environmental science professionals and students. Three Corporate Membership levels enable your company to interact with the Societies in ways that best fit your needs. All levels provide access to journals, meetings, membership, and recognition benefits, as well as special reduced rates for company-wide Online Library subscriptions. And a Corporate Membership supports the missions of the Societies and the development of students in our professions.

Erratum

Finally, we'd like to publish these two errata from the April issue of CSA News: First, the photo on page 4 of the article "Soil Archives Ripe for Researching Long-Term Changes" was not taken by Al Frank; rather, it was actually taken from a publication authored by him. The correct caption is "Soil sample collection at the Northern Great Plains Field Station, Mandan, ND, 1918 (from Frank, 2013)." Second, on page 28, we misspelled the name of one of this year's outstanding reviewers for the Journal of Environmental Quality, Yongshan Wan. It's spelled correctly herein. We regret the errors.
