Submit an abstract by 21 June to save

April 15, 2022

Communication and Public Engagement for Healthy People and a Healthy Planet

November 6-9, 2022, Baltimore, MD
or Limited Virtual

Anyone can submit an abstract to this year's International Annual Meeting, and most are accepted! Gain presentation experience and professional recognition among premier agronomic, crop, soil, and related science professionals. Your efforts will expand your CV/vita, disseminate information for all to succeed, and foster lasting collaborations with your peers.

In-person and virtual abstract submission are both available.

Save money and submit by 21 June. Don't have the detail you need to submit an abstract? No problem! Abstracts at this point are simply "holding slots" that reserve your spot in the desired session. Submit now, and update through 9 November.

Need tips on how to write an abstract? Check out www.acsmeetings.org/submit for tips, regulations, and frequently asked questions.
