Every year, the Western Society of Crop Science (WSCS) holds a conference that provides a venue for collaboration and networking among crop science professionals and students in the Western Region. It is an excellent opportunity for students to present their research findings and talk with professionals in their area of research/interest.

The conference will take place June 23–24, 2026 at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. There will be a field tour, professional and student oral and poster presentations, a student competition, and a gala banquet. Early registration and abstract submissions close June 12. Learn more.
